

FIELD VISIT REPORT FOR MBA

PLACE - ADANI KRISHNA PATNAM PORT LIMITED

The department of Business management has organized an industrial visit as 24th Jan.2024 as a part of render academic activity to the Krishnapatnam port (Pvt) Ltd, Krishnapatnam port the main objectives of the industrial visiting program is to make the authorities of Business Management to undertaking the vision things and practices of the organgationing direct observations.

AKPL is are of the largest port in the forth into and has seen operating it is sessions in both exports and imports of goods form the adjacent contains of the work.

All the third and First semester students got opportunities to visit the port and also censure to know about the different types of cargo handling, where home and destination system, functioning of port used operations pollution control masseur and also safety awareness and train inning programs.

As a first schedule of the program the udan team of the APKL has taken all the students into a safety section also explain the students how to beehive and move write the port work safety sun suns. They gone a safety jacket all the students.

After through checking of the individually by the team of the safety officers we are allowed to visiting an of the cement manufacturer company at the port area, whereas all the students has visited the plant and observed that a huge structure and tanks which me using as equipments with a process of cement manufacturing. However all the machines and operators as usual are to ideal position due to lack of demand of cement with Sri lanka market.

Later we visited the port and observed that there are many vehicles are unloading the goods with big cranes and fork lifting operating machines.

Finally we Visit the Aadani Oil company and came to known that edible Oil primary visit work proper explain of the plant layout , providing equipment and machines .

The visit has completed with the support of the faculty and HOD of the Department