23-PS&PA-01: THE IMPLICIT EURO-CENTRISM OF INTERNATIONAL RELATIONS

This course seeks to familiarize the learners with the main discourses in International Relations and to equip them to look at them critically. Starting with the theoretical approaches, the course aims to provide critical understanding of important present-day issues and trends that define the contours of International Relations. It provides a wide-ranging outline of the major political developments. A key objective of the course is to make students aware of the implicit Euro-centrism of International Relations.
