“Communication Skills and Employability Skills”

(Sponsored by Ministry of Youth Affairs & Sports, Govt. of India)

21st -23rd November 2018

Organized by

VSU NSS CELL UNIT-III

While there always job-specific skills that an employer is looking for, most employers also want you to have some general skills. These general job skills are sometimes called "employability skills". Employability skills are a set of skills and behaviours that are necessary for every job. While your education and experience may make you eligible to apply for a job, to be successful in the role you will need to exhibit a mix of skills: 'employability skills'. Having employability skills not only help you to get a job but also help you top in your work places. Positive attitude, Teamwork, Self-management, Communication, Willingness to learn, problem solving and decision making skills are few of the examples of employability skills.

In this context, VSU NSS Unit-III organized a three day Workshop on “Communication skills and Employability skills” for the benefit of VSU NSS Unit-III volunteers (2nd, 3rd Yr MCA, 2nd Yr M.com, MA (Telugu), MA (Political Science & Public administration) from 21.11.2018 to 23.11.2018 with the financial assistance of Ministry of Youth Affairs and Sports, Govt. of India. All the registered participants were provided a participation certificate, Workshop Kit, Lunch and tea for free of cost.

This three days workshop aimed at improving the productivity of the student participants through sessions on different themes that includes Employability Skill Development, Personality Development, Soft Skills, Leadership and Managerial Skills, Value education and many more. The workshop is divided into 9 sessions for lecture and each session was shared by a faculty member /resource person who has particular expertise in the area covered by that session.

Inaugural session was started on 21.11.2018 at 10:00 AM at Sir C.V. Raman Seminar hall, Administrative building Vikrama Simhapuri University, Nellore with the welcome address by Dr. Y. Vijaya, NSS Programme officer of Unit-II, VSU. Prof. Ande Prasad, Principal & Dean Faculty of Science of V.S.U has presided over the function. Prof. R. Sudarsana Rao, Vice-Chancellor, Vikrama Simhapuri University, Nellore was the chief guest. Prof. A. Prasanna Kumar, Former-Rector, Andhra University & President, Centre for Policy Studies, Visakhapatnam was the distinguished guest. Prof. A. Durgaprasada Rao, Registrar V.S University was the guest of honour.

The function was started with invocation followed by lightening of lamp by the chief guest and other guests on the dias. The Convenor of the workshop Prof. Ande Prasad presented the scope and objectives of the workshop. Further, in his presidential address congratulated the ex-NSS Programme officer, Dr. K. Ramesh Reddy for obtaining recognition at level and appreciated present NSS programme officer, Dr. Uday Sankar Allam for organising this event and emphasised the impact of employability skills.

Prof. R. Sudarsana Rao, Chief Guest and Vice chancellor, Vikrama Simhapuri University, Nellore mentioned the importance and relevance of the work shop theme in the contemporary scenario. He also discussed the about how the communication and employability skills help the youth to tackle current employment scenario and job prospective. He also spoke about the importance of the theme of the workshop and prospective in the international scenario. He also stated that these types of workshops are more beneficial to the students who are the upcoming researchers and students preparing for competitive exams. Prof. A. Prasanna Kumar, Former-Rector, Andhra University & President, Centre for Policy Studies, Visakhapatnam spoke about “Importance of Value Education”. At the end of the inaugural session the Distinguished Guest was felicitated by university authorities, finally vote of thanks was proposed by Dr. Kiranmai Chadipiralla, Assistant Professor and University NSS advisory committee member, V.S.U, followed by national anthem.

After inaugural session, lecturers were arranged as listed in programme sheet. Finally certificates were handed over or distributed to all the participants by Prof. Ande Prasad, Principal and Dr. R. Prabakar, NSS programme officer Unit-I, Vikrama Simhapuri University, Nellore. This was followed by feedback from the participants. All the participants were satisfied about technical sessions, practical training, arrangements and hospitality. All the participants expressed that the workshop has given excellent knowledge regarding the communication skills and employability skills. They also expressed that if the workshop would extend for two more days it would be of more fruitful. There were very interesting discussions during the workshop on each topic. The copies of all the presentations were provided to each participant. I wish and hope that all the participants enjoyed these days and make use of the opportunity to improve their employability skills. Further, I am confident that the learning outcomes of this workshop will go long way in shaping the participants career.

This workshop was made possible with funding from the Ministry of Youth Affairs and Sports, Govt. of India and I am immensely grateful for Prof. R. Sudarsana Rao, Vice Chancellor for his guidance and encouragement. I am also thankful to other organising committee members including Prof. Ande Prasad and Dr. K. Ramesh reddy. Finally, I am grateful for the efforts of all those helping hands of Vikrama Simhapuri University who helped to make this workshop possible including Dr.G.Sujay, Dr. R.Prabakar, Dr. K. Neela Mani Kanta and Dr. Chadipiralla Kiranmai, and Dr. T. Veera Reddy. Last but not least, without the support of VSU NSS Cell staff including Ms. J.Swathi, Mr. Usman Ali, Mr. Sivaiah, and Ms.Lakshmi it was impossible to organize this workshop.

3 Days Workshop on “Communication Skills and Employability Skills”

Students told to hone communication skills

DC CORRESPONDENT
NELLORE, NOV. 21

Former Rector of Andhra University and president of Centre for Policy Studies, Visakhapatnam, Prof. A. Prasanna Kumar called upon the students to improve their communication and employability skills to secure jobs and excel in their career.

He was addressing the students of University College at a workshop on 'communication and employability skills' sponsored by the Ministry of Youth Affairs & Sports, Government of India, at Vikrama Simhapuri University on Wednesday.

He said that the biggest enemy of the country is corruption and lamented that 50 per cent of the national wealth was in the hands of 2 per cent of the people.

India is in a strong position to rule the world because 65 per cent of the population is youth, he said. "Though China is rich, its population is aging," Mr Kumar pointed out. In a lighter vein, he said India has beaten China with respect to sale of mobile phones. "Around 60 lakh mobile phones are being sold in the country," he said. The former rector of AU said 12 per cent of the doctors and 30 per cent of engineers in USA are from India.

Speaking about communication skills, he defined it as "How you say, what you say and when you say". "The 21st century belongs to the youth and they should take a pledge to change India."

Vice-chancellor of VSU Prof. R. Sudarsana Rao inaugurated the workshop. He advised the students to make the best use of the workshop and improve their skills.
