About the sensitization Programme:

- The target age group for the program are students and faculty of Vikrama Simhapuri University, Nellore. The programme hopes to positively influence and impact the attitudes and behaviour of the youngsters towards the differently-abled. They are the next generation of decision-makers – employers, service providers, business owners, advocates, policymakers – teachers, colleagues, neighbours and friends. And this programme also covers Mental Health Rehabilitation Programme i.e., Kiran which is launched by the Ministry of Social Justice and Empowerment, a 24/7 toll-free helpline ‘Kiran’ to provide support to people facing anxiety, stress, depression, suicidal thoughts and other mental health concerns. It will offer mental health rehabilitation services with the objective of early screening, first-aid, psychological support, distress management, promoting positive behaviours, etc.

Objectives of the programme :

- *Sensitize the student Community and faculty about disability and make them stand for people with disabilities
- *Positively influence and impact the attitudes and behaviour of the youngsters towards the differently abled.
- * To know about the services rendered for PwD’s at CRC-Nellore
- * To know about the different schemes and benefits for PwDs
- * Different Skill development programmes for PwDs
- * Services rendered by KIRAN-MHRH
- * ADIP scheme
