A brief report on the One-Day skill development programme on Recent Innovations in Analytical Techniques: A focus on HPLC organized by Dr.S.B. Sainath, Centre for Innovation, Incubation and Entrepreneurship, V.S. UNIVERSITY, Nellore

Centre for Innovation, Incubation and Entrepreneurship at V.S. University fosters innovation, research, and entrepreneurial activities in technology-based areas. It provides a platform for start-ups by budding entrepreneurs and intrapreneurs to convert their innovative ideas into commercially viable products. It also provides services related to patenting and commercialization. To accomplish these tasks, CIIE, V.S. University, Nellore conducts different activities including Guest Lectures by top scientists at the National and International Levels. Dr. Mannur Ismail, Faculty of Food Science and Technology, University of Terengganu, Malaysia visited V.S. University on 18-07-2022 to discuss about the MoU between the two varsities. Dr Mannur Ismail met the Hon'ble Vice Chancellor, V.S. University, Nellore and the Registrar, V.S. University, Nellore and discussed the collaborative activities happened between the two varsities.

Dr. S.B. Sainath, the organizing secretary of the one day skill development programme introduced the Invited speaker, Dr Mannur Ismail to the students and Research Scholars. Dr Mannur Ismail gave a guest lecture towards the "Recent innovations in the analytical techniques and in particular gave a talk on the improvements in the HPLC technique". He mentioned that the academics combined with skill oriented techniques provide a strong platform for the students to develop their innovative ideas. During his talk, he mentioned that the HPLC technique is one of the unique techniques that are useful for the separation of proteins and now-a-days the application of LC/LC-Mass Spectroscopy is useful for the determination of amino acids in a particular protein. He also mentioned that as a part of collaboration, students may visit their University as a part of "exchange of students" and during their stay the accommodation and the laboratory charges will be exempted. Thirty five students and 10 research scholars actively participated in the event.

After the talk by Dr. Ismail, the Vote of Thanks was read by Dr. P. Triveni, Associate Professor, Department of Chemistry and expressed heartfelt thanks to University Authorities for their support and participants in making the One-day Skill Development programme a grand success.

Dr Mannur Ismail presenting a memento to the Hon'ble Vice Chancellor,
Prof. G. M. Sundaravalli, V.S. University, Nellore

Centre for Innovation, Incubation and Entrepreneurship team with Dr. Ismail and deliberations about the MoU between the Universities. During the Discussions, Hon'ble Vice Chancellor, Prof. G.M. Sundaravalli, V.S. University, Nellore and the Registrar, V.S. University, Nellore discussed about the collaborative activities between the Varsities
