REPORT

As a part of Simhapuri Distinguished Lecture Series Three, Vikrama Simhapuri University, Nellore has organized a online webinar on “Social Entrepreneurship During Covid Time” on 7th December, 2020. Padma Bhushan D. K. I. Varaprasad Reddy, Chairma Shantha Biotechnics Pvt. Limited, Hyderabad was the distinguished speaker of the day.

Social entrepreneurship is all about recognizing the social problems and achieving a social change by employing entrepreneurial principles process and operations. It is all about making a research to completely define a particular social problem ad then organizing, creating and managing a social venture to attain the desired change. The changes may or may not include a thorough elimination of social problem. It may be lifetime process focusing on the improvement of the existing circumstances.

While a general and common business entrepreneurship means taking a lead to open up a new business or diversifying the existing business, social entrepreneurship means taking a lead to open up a new business or diversifying the exiting business, social e entrepreneurship mainly focuses on creating social capital without measuring the preference in profit or return in monetary. The entrepreneurs in this filed are associated with non-profit sectors and organizations. But this does not eliminate the need of st making profit. After all entrepreneurs need capital to carry on with the process and bring a positive change in the society.

In the pandemic situation like COVID-19, the need and importance of social entrepreneurship are more needful to the society to support the deprived in the society.

In this webinar Honorable Vice-Chancellor Prof. R. Sudarsan Rao, Rector, Prof. M. Chandraiah, and Registrar, Dr. L.V. Krishana Reddy of Vikrama Simhapuri University, Nellore has participated, and also Faculty and Students of the university joined as delicates of the webinar.
